

SPEECH, LANGUAGE AND LEARNING SERVICES

Our Speech, Language & Learning Services (SLLS) treats members experiencing speech, language, learning, swallowing, feeding, and cognitive problems resulting from a wide variety of developmental, acquired, and neurological based conditions.

Members of the SLLS staff are certified by the American Speech/Language and Hearing Association. They specialize in a variety of areas including autism, language and learning disabilities, and adult neurogenic disorders.

Our experienced team provides the following services:

- Clinical Swallow
- Cognitive Evaluation
- Language Learning
- Modified Barium Swallow Study
- Myofunctional (Tongue Thrust)
- Speech and Language Evaluation and Therapy
- Stuttering
- Voice Evaluation including Gender Affirming
- Alternative Augmentative Communication (ACC)
- Pediatric Feeding Evaluation and Therapy
- Laryngectomy
- Lee Silverman Voice Treatment (LSVT)
- Articulation and Phonology
- Autism Spectrum Disorders
- Childhood Apraxia and Speech (CAS)
- Lindamood Phoneme Sequencing (LIPS)
- PROMPT
- Social Communication

CONTACT US

For more information about our Speech, Language and Learning Services, please call 425-556-6330.

Speech, Language & Learning Services Locations

Bellevue Medical Center

Redmond Medical Center

Renton Medical Center

Everett Medical Center

Seattle – Capitol Hill Campus

[Tacoma Mall Office - Speech,
Language & Learning](#)

Olympia Medical Center

Port Orchard Medical Center

Silverdale Rehabilitation Center